TOP PLAYS

UTSA -6.5 at Louisiana Tech

There is no doubt now that LT can't sustain any type of ground game after UTEP bounced Tech 19-3 last week, but OWNED ALL TIME OF POSSESSION 37-23 in that win. UTSA been on top earlier this season winning on the road, so we come back to the Roadrunners who are quietly improving their culture, and already are bowl eligible for this season. UTSA offense is head and shoulders above LT and know how to score and getting a legit TD here and another there, should be no problem at all. TECH now 1-9 ATS off back to back road losses and catch a UTSA team that is pretty much been MONEY for all backers at 18-6-1 last 25 games vs the spread. LT BULLDOGS are 3-7 ATS last 10 vs teams with a winning record, stand at 2-5 ATS last 7 conference games 0-4 ATS following a straight up loss and 1-4 ATS last 5 after allowing 280 yards passing in their last outing. UTSA DEFENSE steps it up as seen by their 4-0 ATS mark after allowing LESS than 20 points n their last outing, are an OUTSTANDING 8-0 ATS on road turf, 8-1 ATS last 9 games overall, 7-1 ATS last 8 games off an outright win, stand 10-2 ATS last 12 road games - 4-1 ATS last 5 as favorites - 4-1 ATS after allowing less than 100 yards rushing - and are 4-1 ATS after rushing for 200 yards or more n their last outing. Too much offense for LT defense to handle, and with the LT QB only at 10/8 splits passing, could be another long Saturday for LT despite playing in revenge. UTSA 38-22

ATLANTA -1 at Miami

JET LAG. Simply put, JET LAG, Miami gets no time off from playing in London last week and now go home, and face ATLANTA who comes in off a bye. Kind of not fair is it? Furthermore Miami has deteriorated vs the spread going 2-5 last 7 after having a standout ATS mark prior. Lets face it, while Dolphins belly flopped vs Jags last week it comes down to Miami holding steady at 29th in offense and defense to date and must face an Atlanta team that has been progressing and showing signs of coming together now that the Falcons skill people appear to be on the same page. Miami in doldrums scoring 20 or less in 4 of 5 games, while allowing 30 in that same period does not bode well nor does the Dolphins missing in action list of players going down in action. Make matters worst the favorite in this series has gone 3-1-1 ATS lately and FALCONS stand 7-2-1 ATS overall vs Miami.-- ATLANTA 9-3 ATS last 12 vs teams with a losing record and 4-1 ATS last 5 vs teams with a losing HOME record. FALCONS FLY 31-20

Well dang it, Mahomes sure blew our 1st half vs Washington last week missing scoring opps' once inside the 8, and the other inside the redzone on one of the worst INT I have ever seen, gawd! Sending that go against TIDBIT 23-4 last 27 first half wagers. Now it's the Packers turn to feast on a struggling Washington this weekend, while there is no first quarter line now, the first half has GB laying -5 and all signals are GO for another payday. With recent developments will also take a wager on GB in the first quarter, but you will have to get that on your own as stated, no line posted for that wager yet.
